

Tubbs & Messer 1898 - ?

Tubbs & Messer was an architectural partnership formed by by Cyril Bazett Tubbs (1859-1927) and Arthur Albert Messer (1863-1934) in 1898. In c.1913-15 Tubbs and Messer were in partnership with (?) Poulter* as Tubbs, Messer & Poulter. George Val Myers (1883-1959) was also a partner in the firm until 1924.

Tubbs & Messer designed several buildings for the London Necropolis and National Mausoleum Company's Hook Heath Estate in Woking. They also designed Moorhatch in Horsell, Woking (1905); and the West Surrey Golf Club House near Godalming, Surrey (1910).

The practice had offices in London, at 10 The Broadway, Woking, Surrey, at 7 Cantelope Road, Bexhill, Sussex, and possibly also in Newbury, Berkshire.

* Poulter is likely to have been Briant Alfred Poulter (1881-1972) or/and Harry Reginald Poulter (1879-c.1966), both of whom had worked as assistants to Tubbs & Messer in the early 1900s.

Worked in

UK

Works

Tubbs & Messer designed several buildings for the London Necropolis and National Mausoleum Company's Hook Heath Estate in Woking. They also designed Moorhatch in Horsell, Woking (1905); and the West Surrey Golf Club House near Godalming, Surrey (1910).

Links

- The National Archives

<https://discovery.nationalarchives.gov.uk/details/r/38e9c7f0-35f9-439c-8959-f0e51c64791e>

- Surrey in the Great War: A County Remembers - Arthur Albert Messer

<https://www.surreyinthegreatwar.org.uk/author/jenny2435/page/3/>

- Historic England - Brookwood Cemetery, Woking

<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1001265>

- Historic England - 'Crow Clump', 'The Corbies' and 'Yaffle Hill', Elmbridge, Surrey <https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1392383>

- Victorian Web. The Columbarium and the Catholic and Dissenter's Chapels, Brookwood Cemetery, Woking, Surrey

<https://victorianweb.org/art/parks/brookwood/3.html>