

Harvey, William Alexander 1874 - 1951

William Alexander Harvey was born in Birmingham, Warwickshire, England on 11 April 1874 and was the son of John Harvey (1848-1923) a stained glass designer. He was articled to David Smith & Son in Birmingham from 1890 to 1894. He also studied architecture at Birmingham Municipal School of Art where he was taught architectural history and design by William Henry Bidlake (1861-1938).

In 1895 he was appointed by George Cadbury, founder of the chocolate and cocoa company Cadbury's, to design quality and affordable homes for his workers in Bournville. Over the next five years he designed numerous cottages for Bournville Village. Many of the houses show the influence of the prevailing Arts and Crafts style. In 1900 the Bournville Village Trust took over responsibility for the development of the village, although Harvey continued to work for the Trust until 1904 when he set up his own architectural practice.

In addition to his work for the Bournville Village Trust, Harvey was Architect to Newburn District Council, and to West Bromwich Corporation; Consulting Architect to Oldham and District Councils, including Chadderton, Crompton, Royton, Lees and Springhead; Consulting Architect in connection with the Kettering and several other housing schemes.

From 1912 until at least the mid-1930s, Harvey was in partnership with Herbert Graham Wicks (1887-1965) as Harvey & Wicks [W.A. Harvey & H.G. Wicks]. Their office was located at 5 Bennetts Hill, Birmingham.

Harvey was elected a Licentiate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (LRIBA) in 1911 and a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects (FRIBA) in 1918. He was awarded the RIBA Architecture Bronze Medal for Warwickshire, South Staffordshire, Shropshire, Herefordshire and Worcestershire in 1934, and the RIBA Distinction in Town Planning in 1936.

Harvey's address was given as 26 Linden Road, Bournville, Birmingham in 1901 and 1911; 5, Bennett's Hill, Birmingham in 1911 and 1939; and 58 Hagley Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham in 1951. He died in Edgbaston, Birmingham on 6 February 1951.
