

Field, Simmons & Farey c. 1911 - c. 1912

Horace Field, Simmons & Farey [also known as Field, Simmons & Farey] was an architectural partnership formed in c.1911 when Cyril Arthur Farey (1888-1954) became a partner in the existing firm of Horace Field & Simmons established by Horace Field (1861?-1948) and Charles Evelyn Simmons (1879-1952) in c.1905. The address of the practice was given as 21 Berners Street, London in 1911. The partnership may have been short-lived as Farey appears to have been working independently in 1913.

Worked in
UK