

Kieffer & Fleming

Kieffer & Fleming was an architectural firm founded in England in the 1920s by William Joseph Kieffer (1888-1944) and Herbert Sidney Fleming (1881-1955).

Photographs of 'Lordships Close', in Stapleford, Cambridgeshire and the dining hall fireplace at the Manor House in Quendon, Essex, and of the garden at 'Southlands' in Kettering, Northamptonshire, designed by Kieffer & Fleming are illustrated in 'The Studio Yearbook of Decorative Art' 1925 (pp.27, 52, 71, 178), and photographs of 'Lordship's Close' in Stapleford, Cambridgeshire, 'Homeways' in Weybridge, Surrey, and a cottage in The Close, Hatfield, Hertfordshire, designed by Kieffer & Fleming are illustrated in 'The Studio Yearbook of Decorative Art' 1926 (pp.28, 44)

Worked in

UK

Links

- Historic England - Barrington Hall, Barrington, Cambridgeshire
<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1127632>