

Lanchester & Lodge 1930 - ?

Lanchester & Lodge originated as Lanchester, Lucas & Lodge, an architectural partnership formed in London, England in 1923 [or 1920 - sources differ] by Henry Vaughan Lanchester (1863-1953), Thomas Geoffry Lucas (1872-1947) and Thomas Arthur Lodge (1888-1967) in c.1913. The title of the firm changed in Lanchester & Lodge in 1930 when Lucas withdrew from the partnership in order to practice independently. Lanchester died in 1953, however, Lodge continued to run the practice alone with the name unchanged for some years after that.

Worked in

UK

Bibliography

Harwood, Elaine. Art Deco Britain: Buildings of the Interwar Years. London: Batsford, 2019

Links

- Historic England - Circle House, 27-31 Lady Lane, Leeds
<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1463681>
- Historic England - School of Mineral Engineering, University of Leeds
<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1255654>
- Historic England - Parkinson Building including Brotherton Library, University of Leeds
<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1255638>
- Historic England - Botany Building, University of Cambridge
<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1446109>
- Historic England - Hackney Town Hall <https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1235869>
- Dictionary of Scottish Architects 1660-1980
http://www.scottisharchitects.org.uk/architect_full.php?id=204406
- University of Birmingham's Medical School
<https://manchesterhistory.net/architecture/1930/medicalschoool.html>