

Symonds & Lutyens 1927 - 1931

Symonds & Lutyens was a short-lived architectural and interior design partnership formed in London, England in 1927 by Robert Wemyss Symonds (1889-1958) and Robert Lutyens (1901-1972).

A photograph of a library with flush-panelled deal walls, a table and a bathroom with bath set in a recess, mirror-glazed doors, and medicine cupboards with glazed-iron doors designed by the architects, Symonds & Lutyens is illustrated in 'Decorative Art' 1932 (pp.23, 41). The partnership was dissolved in 1931
