

Welch, Cachemaille-Day & Lander 1928 - 1935

Welch, Cachemaille-Day & Lander was an architectural partnership formed in London, England in 1928 by Herbert Arthur Welch (1889-1953), Nugent Francis Cachemaille-Day (1896-1976), and Felix James Lander (1897-1960). The three partners had met whilst working for Louis de Soissons (1890-1962) in Welwyn Garden City.

During its seven-year history the practice designed large number of buildings throughout suburban London and the South East, including houses, shops, hotels and churches. They designed the much-admired Crawford's Advertising office building at 233 High Holborn, London in 1930.

The partnership was dissolved in 1935 when Cachemaille-Day left to set up his own practice. Lander and Welch continued as Herbert A. Welch & Felix J. Lander.
