

Kitson, Parish, Ledgard & Pyman 1929 - ?

Kitson, Parish, Ledgard & Pyman was an architectural partnership formed in Leeds, Yorkshire, England, in 1929. The practice originated in 1914 when Sydney Decimus Kitson (1871-1937) took his chief assistant, James Parish (1875-1933) into partnership. William Armitage Ledgard (1889-1963) joined the firm in 1919 and Noel Pyman (1904-1970) became a partner in 1929, thus forming Kitson, Parish, Ledgard & Pyman.

The firm was active until at least 1962. A photograph of a country house designed by Kitson Parish Ledgard & Pyman is illustrated in 'Decorative Art' 1935 (p.19).

Worked in

UK

Works

The Clock cinema in the Leeds suburb of Roundhay (1938); Leeds General Infirmary, Calverley Street, Brotherton Wing (1940); Moortown Estate Church, Leeds (1954); Methodist Church in Beeston, Leeds (1957); the Church of St. Cyprian with St. James in Harehills, Yorkshire (1959); the Martin Wing and laboratories for the General Infirmary in Leeds (1961); and the Church of St. David in Beeston, Yorkshire (c.1962).

Links

- Leodis. A Photographic Archive of Leeds - Clock Cinema, Roundhay Road https://www.leodis.net/ViewImage/ByIndicator/2011131_171726
- UK Modern House http://ukmoho.co.uk/html/architect/Kitson_Parish_Ledgard_Pyman.html
- Twentieth Century Society. C20 Churches <https://c20society.org.uk/c20-churches/st-andrew-65>
- flickr - Leeds General Infirmary, Brotherton Wing <https://www.flickr.com/photos/30120216@N07/5997036337>
- Discovering Leeds - Lowerhead Row http://www.leodis.org/display.aspx?resourceIdentifier=2002513_38721865
- Ripon and Leeds Bells <http://www.riponandleedsbells.org.uk/Moor%20Allerton%20St%20Stephen.htm>
- Cinema Treasures - Clock Cinema, Leeds <http://cinematreasures.org/theaters/2720>

- Pub Heritage - Swan public house, York
<https://pubheritage.camra.org.uk/pubs/204>
- The Cotman Collection - profile of Sydney Decimus Kitson
<https://cotmania.org/archives/sdk/1/2/1/9/54>
- Historic England - The Swan Public House, Leeds
<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1393749>