

Doran, Patrick 1903 - 1945

Patrick Doran [also known as P. Doran] was born on 20 November 1903. He worked as an architect in England in the 1930s. Three photographs of 'Fiveways' in Little Chalfont, Buckinghamshire, a Modernist-style flat-roofed building designed by Roger Smithells and Doran are illustrated in 'Decorative Art' 1935 (p.21).

Doran was living at 5 Vivian Gardens, Wembley, Middlesex and was working as an architect for Southwark Borough Council in 1939. He died in 1945.

Worked in
UK