

Adams, Thompson & Fry 1927 - 1934

Adams, Thompson & Fry was an architectural and town planning firm established by Thomas Adams (1871-1940), Francis Longstreth Thompson (1890-1973) and Edwin Maxwell Fry (1899-1970). Fry had worked in the London office of Adams and Thompson (Adams & Thompson) from 1925 and was taken into partnership in 1927.

In the late 1920s and early 1930s the practice produced numerous local and regional town planning reports [see WorldCat]. The partnership was dissolved in 1934.

Worked in

UK

Works

For town planning projects by the partnership see WorldCat [link below]

Links

- WorldCat

<https://www.worldcat.org/search?q=au%3AAdams%2C%20Thompson%20%26%20Fry.&qt>

- UK Modern House

http://www.ukmoho.co.uk/html/architect/Adams_Thompson_Fry.html

- The National Archives

<https://discovery.nationalarchives.gov.uk/details/c/F160493>