

Joseph & Smithem 1885 - ?

Joseph & Smithem was an architectural partnership formed in London, England in 1885 by Nathan Solomon Joseph (1834?-1909) and Charles James Smithem (1856-1937). Joseph's son, Charles Sampson Joseph (1872-1948) subsequently became a partner, at which point the firm was renamed Joseph, Son & Smithem. The partnership was dissolved on 31 December 1903. It appears to have been re-formed as Joseph & Smithem with Charles Sampson Joseph, Charles James Smithem and Ernest Martin Joseph (1877-1960) [son of Nathan Solomon Joseph] as partners. This partnership was dissolved in 31 December 1916.

Worked in

UK

Works

See Historic England [link below]

Links

- Historic England - contains 12 references to architectural work by Joseph & Smithem

<https://historicengland.org.uk/sitesearch?searchType=site&search=%22joseph%20and%20smithem%22>

- The Victorian Web - 16 Brook Street, London

<https://victorianweb.org/art/architecture/commercial/29.html>

- The Victorian Web - Nathan Solomon Joseph (1834-1909)

<https://victorianweb.org/art/architecture/joseph/index.html>

- archiseek <https://www.archiseek.com/?s=Joseph%20%26%20Smithem>

- Dictionary of Irish Architects 1720-1940

<https://www.dia.ie/architects/view/2867/JOSEPH&SMITHEM%23>