

Bartlett & Waring

A. Bartlett & H.F. Waring [also known as Bartlett & Waring] was an architectural firm active in England in the early 1900s. Sketches of a proposed house near Lydd, Kent are illustrated in 'The Studio' July 1902 (p.119).

NOTE: no further information has been traced on this firm. It is possible that A. Bartlett was Arthur Edward Bartlett (1867-1933)
