

Robinson & Jones 1905 - 1914

Robinson & Jones [also known as Percy Robinson & W. Alban Jones] was an architectural partnership formed by William Alban Jones (1875-1950) and Percy Robinson (1868-1950) in Leeds, Yorkshire, England in 1905. The practice mainly designed commercial and public buildings in the Leeds area. The partnership was dissolved in 1914.

Worked in

UK

Links

- Dictionary of Scottish Architects 1660-1980

http://www.scottisharchitects.org.uk/architect_full.php?id=202871

- Historic England - Baptist Church and Church Hall, Leeds

<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1256025>

- Historic England - Hove Public Library, Hove, Sussex

<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1298670>

- Wikipedia - Bethnel Green Town Hall

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bethnal_Green_Town_Hall

- Opening of Villa Marina Kursal. Architects' Description of the Building and Grounds. Manx Quarterly no.13, 1913 http://www.isle-of-

man.com/manxnotebook/mquart/mq13002.htm