

Barrett & Driver c. 1897 - ?

Barrett & Driver [also known as Stanley-Barrett & Driver; Stanley Barratt & Driver; and as H. Stanley Barrett & Driver] was an architectural firm founded as Barrett & Driver in London, England in c.1897 by Herbert Stanley Barrett (1876-1956) and Charles Henry Driver (1863-1925)

Note: 'The London Gazette' of 24 October 1902 (p.6758) contains a notice that the partnership between the "undersigned Stanley Barrett and Charles Henry Driver, carrying on the business as Architects at 52 Blomfield Road, Vale, W., under the style Barrett and Driver, has been dissolved . . . Dated 20th day of October, 1902" The firm was possibly then reconstituted as Stanley-Barrett & Driver, the name by which it was subsequently known.

Worked in

UK

Links

- Garden Cottages - Garden Cottages <http://www.leighhistorical.org.uk/around-the-parish-and-maps/farms-and-the-surrounding-area/garden-cottages/>
- UK Modern House http://www.ukmoho.co.uk/html/architect/Stanley_Barrett_Driver.html
- Looking at Buildings <http://www.lookingatbuildings.org.uk/cities/sheffield/the-flower-estate/tour-part-1.html>
- flickr - 1 & 3 Lexham Walk, London <https://www.flickr.com/photos/ddtmmm/2172369624>
- The Elms, 74 Oak End Way, Gerrards Cross http://gx2006.co.uk/architects_plans/pages/1546.htm
- British History Online. De Vere cottages <https://www.british-history.ac.uk/survey-london/vol42/plate-48#h3-0003>