

Speir & Beavan c. 1904 - ?

Speir & Beavan was an architectural partnership formed in Cardiff, Wales in c.1905 by John Allan Speir (1880-1953) and Thomas Albert Beavan (1880-1920). Between c.1904 and 1908 they designed new branch libraries and reading rooms in Barry, Cathays and Canton in Cardiff and in Newport. Wales.

Cottages designed by Speir & Beaven are discussed and illustrated in Modern Cottages, Villas & Bungalows. A second series of Designs for Suburban & Country houses from £150 to £1,500 to build by Hugh B. Philpott (London: John Dicks Press Ltd., 1914 pp.18, 28).

The address of Speir & Beavan was given as Wharton Street, Cardiff in 1905.

Worked in

UK

Links

- Wikipedia - Cathays Library designed by Speir & Beavan (1906-07)
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cathays_Library
- The Carnegie legacy in England and Wales - Pontypool library (1908)
<https://carnegielegacyinengland.wordpress.com/tag/monmouthshire/>
- British Listed Buildings - 6,Pwll-y-Min Crescent,Wyndham Park, Peterston-super-Ely, Vale of Glamorgan <https://britishlistedbuildings.co.uk/300026953-6pwll-y-min-crescentwyndham-parkcf5-6lr-peterston-super-ely>