

Hart & Waterhouse 1902 - ?

Hart & Waterhouse was an architectural partnership formed by Alfred Henry Hart (1866-1953) and Percy Leslie Waterhouse (1864-1932) in London, England in 1902.

Following the death of Waterhouse in 1932 Hart became the sole partner in the practice which he continued to run until 1938, retaining the original title of the business.

Worked in

UK

Works

Projects by the practice included offices for the Canada Emigration Department at 9 Charing Cross, London in 1902; Parkside at Albert Gate, London in 1908; additions to Cuddesden College, Oxford in 1909; and an office building for Willing Advertising at 356 Gray's Inn Road, London in 1909.

Trafalgar House, Charing Cross; Parkside Mansions, Albert Gate; Royal Colonial Institute (remodelling): Alexandra House, Paddington; chemical laboratories, houses, Park Street, St. James's; Norwood Technical Institute (remodelling); "The Pryess", Hampstead; Messrs. Willings chief Offices, King's Cross; Clapham Maternity Hospital; school buildings at Brighton, Swanage, etc.; Cuddesdon College, Oxford (additions); numerous houses in different parts of the country. (Several of the above buildings were carried out in partnership with Leslie Waterhouse, M.A., F.R.I.B.A.) [Source: Entry on Alfred Henry Hart in Who's Who in Architecture 1923]

Links

- Dictionary of Irish Architects 1720-1940

<https://www.dia.ie/architects/view/2420/>

- archiseek <https://www.archiseek.com/tag/hart-waterhouse/>

- Historic England - Willing House, London

<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1113190>

- Historic England - Annie McCall Hospital, Lambeth, London

<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1402041>

- British Listed Buildings - Willing House, London

<https://britishlistedbuildings.co.uk/101113190-willing-house-and-attached-wall-with-railings-kings-cross-ward>