

Verity & Beverley 1930 - ?

F. T. Verity & S. Beverley [also known as Verity & Beverley] was an architectural partnership formed in London, England in 1930 by Francis Thomas Verity (1864-1937) and Samuel Beverley (1896-1959). Beverley had worked as Verity's assistant from 1922 and in 1924 became his son-in-law.

F. T. Verity & S. Beverley were European advisory architects to the Paramount Cinematograph Company and to the Union Cinema Company. Following the death of F. T. Verity in 1937 Beverley in 1937, Beverley continued to run the practice for some years with the title of the firm unchanged. He died in London on 26 April 1959.

Verity & Beverley was still in existence in 2021. The address of the firm was given as The Coach House, 4 The Chipping, Tetbury, Gloucestershire in 2021

Worked in

UK

Links

- Official website of Verity & Beverley <https://verity-beverley.co.uk/index.php/about-us/history/>