

Keynes, John Angell James 1860 - 1931

John Angell James Keynes [also known as J. A. J. Keynes] was born in Boston, Lincolnshire, England in 1860. Within a year of his birth he had moved to Wimborne in Dorset. By the time of the 1881 England and Wales Census he was living in Islington, London and his occupation was given as Architect. He subsequently remained in London and in the 1911 England and Wales Census his occupation was given as Architect and Surveyor. He died in Kingston, Surrey on 27 January 1931.

Worked in

UK

Works

Langham Mansions in Earl's Court, London (1894-96); and properties in Roland Gardens, Brompton, London (1890s)

Links

- BHO British History Online. Survey of London Volume 41. Chapter IX - Roland Gardens <https://www.british-history.ac.uk/survey-london/vol41/pp149-155>
- BHO British History Online. Survey of London Volume 42. Plate 123: Edwardes Estate <https://www.british-history.ac.uk/survey-london/vol42/plate-123>