

Brown, Durward 1860 - ?

Durward Brown was born in Fife, Scotland in 1860. By 1890 he had moved to England and was practising as an architect in London. He was subsequently active as an architect in London and Bexhill, Sussex until at least the mid 1920s. He designed houses Marina Court, a row of houses in Bexhill, Sussex and in the 1901 Census his address was given as 3 Marina Court, Bexhill. He also designed The Granville Hotel, Sea Road, Bexhill (c.1901)

Worked in

UK

Links

- alamy <https://www.alamy.com/marina-court-avenue-bexhill-tn39-by-durward-brown-image355204169.html>
- flickr - Marine Court Avenue. Bexhill-on-Sea
<https://www.flickr.com/photos/shadow-in-the-water/28596482854>