

Heal, Albert Victor 1887 - 1975

Albert Victor Heal was born in Colchester, Essex, England in 6 May 1887. After working in the office of Rattie & Kett, a building firm in Cambridge from 1904 to 1906, he was articled to George Frederick Bodley (1827-1907) and Cecil Greenwood Hare (1875-1932) from 1906 to 1913. He began working as an assistant to Richard Creed (1846?-1914) in London in 1913 and following the death of Creed on 1914 he took over his practice. Heal evidently served with distinction during World War One as he was awarded a Military Cross. In 1919 he formed a partnership with Cecil Greenwood Hare (1875-1932). The partnership was dissolved in 1924 and Heal then worked independently until the 1950s when he formed a partnership with Richard Vernon Smith (1886-1868?) and others as Victor Heal & Partners.

Heal was elected an Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (ARIBA) in 1914 and a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects (FRIBA) in 1927. He died in Hendon, Middlesex in 1975.
