

Wright & Mason ? - 1954

Wright & Mason was an architectural partnership formed by Alec Thomas Wright (1898-1978), an architect and Robert George Mason, a surveyor. The firm was active in Norfolk, Norwich, England in the early 1950s. An office building designed by Wright & Mason for The Raymond King Organisation is discussed in 'Art and Industry' January 1952 (pp.22-23). The partnership was dissolved in December 1954.

Worked in

UK

Works

St. Thomas church in Norwich, Norfolk (1952)

Links

- London Gazette 31 December 1954

<https://www.thegazette.co.uk/London/issue/40365/page/7408/data.pdf>

- Norfolk Churches

<http://www.norfolkchurches.co.uk/norwichthomas/norwichthomas.htm>

- Geocaching https://www.geocaching.com/geocache/GC2PHD4_church-micro-1653-norwich-st-thomas?guid=2f4655cd-52d0-4142-8090-33650a0b1ac1