

Tennant & Collins

Tennant & Collins was an architectural partnership established in Yorkshire, England in the 1890s or early twentieth century. They had offices at 10 Regent Street, Barnsley and Ropergate Chambers, Pontefract. In 1906 they submitted an entry in a competition to design the Dual Secondary School in Castleford, Yorkshire. Their designs are illustrated in British Competitions in Architecture vol. 1, no. 12, April 1907 (pp. 21-23)

Worked in
UK