

Ladds, John 1835 - 1926

John Ladds was born in Ellington, Cambridgeshire, England on 22 April 1835. By 1861 he was practising as an architect in Ellington, however, it is not known where and with whom he trained. He was elected an Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (ARIBA) in 1869.

By 1867 he had moved to 4 Chapel Street, Bedford Row, London. By 1881 he was living in the parish of St. George Martyr, London. In the 1891 England and Wales Census his address was given as 7 Doughty Street, St. Pancras, London, where he remained until at least 1901. In 1911 his address was given as 93 Pemberton Road, Haringay, Middlesex [now London] and it was in Haringay that he practised as an architect for the remainder of his career as an architect.

Ladds died on 15 October 1926. At the time of his death his address was given as 93 Pemberton Road, Haringay, Middlesex. His son, Sidney Inskip Ladds (1867-1980) was also an architect
