

Bruton & Foster

Bruton & Foster was an architectural partnership formed by Edward Henry Bruton (1854-1926) and (?) Foster in Cardiff, Wales. The practice submitted an entry in a competition to design the Middle School for Boys and Girls in Tiverton, Devon. Their designs are illustrated in British Competitions in Architecture vol. 2, no. 20, February 1909 (pp. 258-259).

The Bruton & Foster partnership may have been created specifically and only for this competition and was dissolved afterwards.
