

Fitton, Roderick Arthur 1895 - 1977

Roderick Arthur Fitton was born in Middleton, Lancashire [or Timperley, Cheshire - sources differ], England in 1895 and was the son of the architect Thomas Arthur Fitton (1864-1929) with whom he may have received his training. In 1921 he was taken into partnership by his father as T. A. Fitton & Son in Manchester. Following the death of his father in 1929 continued to run the practice with several years, and although Eric Hamilton Thompson subsequently joined him in partnership, the original title of the firm remained unchanged until the partnership was dissolved in 1950.

Roderick Arthur Fitton was elected an Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (ARIBA) in 1927 and, by the early 1950s, a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects (FRIBA). He died in Andover, Hampshire on 16 July 1977.
