

Fisher (W. R. & B.)

W. R. & B. Fisher was an architectural firm active in London, England in the late 1920s. Their address was given as 16, Grove End Road, St. John's Wood, London in 1927. They entered a design for a house in The "Daily Mail" Ideal Houses Competition for Architects, 1927.

Note: no further information has been traced on this practice.

Worked in
UK