

Ferguson, Charles John 1840 - 1904

Charles John Ferguson [also known as C.J. Ferguson; and as Charles J. Ferguson] was born in Carlisle, Cumberland [now Cumbria] in January 1840 and was articled to John Augustus Cory (1819-1887) in Carlisle. He worked for a period in the office of George Gilbert Scott (1811-1878) in London before, in 1868, returning to Carlisle where he formed a partnership with Cory. He subsequently practised independently and had offices in Kensington, London and in Carlisle, Cumberland.

Ferguson was elected an Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (ARIBA) in 1864, and a member of the Art Workers Guild in 1893. He died at his home, Caldew Lodge in Dalston, Cumberland on 1 December 1904.
