

Velarde, Francis Xavier 1897 - 1960

Francis Xavier Velarde* [also known as F.X. Velarde] was born in West Derby, Liverpool, Lancashire, England on 14 October 1897. After military service during World War One, he entered Liverpool School of Art and then, from 1920, attended Liverpool University School of Architecture, where he was taught by Sir Charles Reilly (1874-1948). He was awarded a Honan travelling scholarship in 1923 and was awarded a B.Arch. in 1924.

Velarde subsequently worked as an architect in the Merseyside area and the North West of England. He predominantly designed churches and schools for the Roman Catholic Church. In the late 1920s and early 1930s he was a junior partner in the architectural firm Weightman, Bullen & Velarde in Liverpool. He later formed F. X. Velarde & Partners.

Velarde taught at Liverpool School of Architecture from 1928. He was elected an Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (ARIBA) in 1925, and a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects (FRIBA) in 1935. In 1937 he was awarded the RIBA Godwin and Wimperis Medal.

His address was given as 33 Aubury Street, Everton, Liverpool in 1911; 15 Tithebarn Road, Liverpool in 1928 and 1931; and 3 Abercromby Square, Liverpool in 1934 and 1939. He died in Crosby, Liverpool, on 28 December 1960
