

Thomas, Walter Aubrey 1863 - 1934

Walter Aubrey Thomas was born in Tranmere, Birkenhead, Cheshire, England on 14 December 1863 [1] and was baptised at St. Nicholas Church, Liverpool on 12 July 1864. His father, Thomas Glegge Thomas (1829-1881) was an architect. He was articled to James Francis Doyle (1840-1913) in Liverpool and subsequently established an architectural practice in Liverpool. [2].

His address was given as New Hall, Thornton Hough, Cheshire in 1891; and Parkgate, Neston, Cheshire in 1901

Thomas retired in 1933 and died in Wirral, Cheshire on 13 September 1934

A biographical file available on request from the Enquiry Desk, Royal Institute of British Architects Library, London.

[1] His year of birth is often given as 1859 or as 1864, however, the Church of England [record of] Births and Baptisms [for] Liverpool 1860-1869 clearly gives his date of birth as 14 December 1863

[2] It is usually stated that Thomas commenced practice in c.1876 but this is unlikely as he would only have been about 13. It is more likely that he established his practice in the mid to late 1880s.
