

Mansell & Mansell c. 1892 - 1934

Mansell & Mansell was an architectural partnership formed by Thomas Henry Mansell (1834-1911) and his sons, Edward Mansell (1860-1941) and Thomas Gildart Mansell (1866-1929), in Birmingham, England in c.1892. Soon after the arrangement, Mansell senior retired leaving his sons to run the practice.

In the early 1900s Edward and Thomas Gildart Mansell were briefly in partnership with (?) Dixon as Mansell, Mansell & Dixon. They submitted designs for a competition for an extension to Birmingham Council House in 1906. The designs are illustrated in British Competitions in Architecture vol. 1, no. 10, September 1906 pp. 41-46. The partnership may have only been formed in order to enter this competition.

In 1908 Mansell & Mansell entered a competition to design municipal buildings in Bethnal Green, London. Their designs are illustrated in British Competitions in Architecture vol. 2, no. 15, February 1908 (pp. 120, 121).

Mansell & Mansell ceased business in 1934.
