

Lea (James & Lister) c. 1863 - ?

The firm of James & Lister Lea was established in Birmingham, England in c.1863 by James Green Lea (1824-1896) and his brother, Lister Lea (1829-1905)*. In the Birmingham Corporation Directory of 1863 they were listed as auctioneers and land agents. By the early 1880s they had evolved into an established architectural firm specialising in the design of public houses. Following the death of the founding partners, the firm was continued by Lister Lea's sons Lister Lea, junior (1855-1919) and Charles Herbert Lea (1861-1905)

* His dates are usually given as 1833-1908, however, a search of ancestry.com shows that he was born in Birmingham, Warwickshire on 12 April 1829 and died in King's Norton, Worcestershire on 10 May 1905. In the 1891 England and Wales Census he gave his occupation as estate agent and architect. James Green Lea was born in Birmingham on 14 April 1824 and died in Hampstead, London on 7 February 1896
