

Barry, Charles 1795 - 1860

Charles Barry [also known as Sir Charles Barry] was born in Westminster, London, England on 23 May 1795 and was articled to Middleton & Bailey, a firm of surveyors in Lambeth, London from 1810 to 1816. In 1817 he embarked on a three year study tour of Continental Europe.

He returned to England on 1 September and later that year set up in private practice in London, with an office at Ely Place.

From 1830 to 1858 Barry acted as architect and surveyor to the Dulwich College Estate.

He was elected a Fellow of the Institute of British Architects (FIBA) in 1834. He was also elected an Associate of the Royal Academy (ARA) in 1840, a Royal Academician (RA) in 1844, a Fellow of the Royal Society (FRS), and a member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) in 1857. He was awarded the Royal Gold Medal in 1850 and was knighted in 1852. He died at his home in Clapham, London on 12 May 1860.
