

Trench, Gilbert Mackenzie 1885 - 1979

Gilbert Mackenzie Trench [also known as G. Mackenzie Trench] was born in Camberwell [or East Dulwich*], Surrey, England on 4 April 1885 and was articled to Thomas Arnold (1838-1912) in 1901-02, and to Augustine Scott Alban Hamilton (1878-1944) of Scott & Hanson in London from 1902 to 1905. He then worked as an assistant to Rowland Plumbe (1838-1919) in London from 1905 to 1907. He qualified as an architect in 1907 and in 1908-09 was employed as Managing Assistant to Frederick G. Cooke (1858-1938). In 1909 he was appointed an assistant in H.M. Office of Works, and from 1911 to 1918 was Assistant Assessment Architect and Surveyor in H.M. Office of Works. In 1920 he was appointed Deputy-Surveyor to the Metropolitan Police, succeeding J. Dixon Butler, and later that year was appointed Police Architect and Surveyor.

Trench was elected an Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (ARIBA) in 1908 and a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects (FRIBA) in 1925. In 1929 he was awarded the Order of the British Empire (O.B.E.) for his invention of the police box.

During World War One he served in the Seaforth Highlanders and Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders.

His address was given as 50 Marmora Road, East Dulwich, South East London in 1911; 18 Eastfield Drive, Aigburth Road. Liverpool in 1913; 59 Marmora Road, Honor Oak, South East London in 1920; and Glen Morven, The Glade, Reigate, Surrey in 1931 and 1935. By 1961 Trench had moved to New Zealand and had settled in Manawatu-Wanganui, where he died on 14 August 1979.

* His place of birth is given as East Dulwich in the 1901 England and Wales Census and Camberwell in the 1911 England & Wales Census.
