

Palmer & Holden

Palmer & Holden was an architectural partnership formed in London, England by Frederick Charles Richard Palmer (1874-1934) and Walter Frederick Clarke Holden (1882-1953). They were active in the 1920s and designed a number of branches for the National Provincial Bank

Worked in
UK