

Moxham, Glendinning 1865 - 1946

Glendinning Moxham was born in Swansea, Wales on 18 May 1865 and was articled to R. Charles Sutton in Nottingham from 1883 to 1886. He also attended Swansea School of Art and University College Nottingham.

From 1887 to 1889 he worked as an assistant to James Buckley Wilson (1846-1900). In 1889 he commenced independent practice in Swansea and was for a period in partnership with Wilson until 1901. He then worked alone in Swansea.

In addition to his work as an architect, from 1913 to 1930 he was Head of the Architectural School at Swansea School of Art.

Moxham was architect to the Swansea General and Eye Hospital. During World War One he was architect for the Red Cross, and carried out the duties of Honorary Architect for the Hospital in the Swansea district.

He was President of the South Wales Institute of Architects in 1914-15; and first Chairman of the Western Division of the South Wales Institute of Architects. He was a member of the Society of Architects (MSA) and was elected a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects (FRIBA) in 1905.

His address was given as 39 Castle Street, Swansea in 1905; and 18, Castle Street, Swansea in 1914 and 1939. He died in Swansea on 27 March 1946. His address at the time of his death was 208 Gower Road, Sketty, Swansea
