Salisbury & Culliford

Salisbury & Culliford was an architectural partnership formed by John Eustace Salisbury (1876-1929) and Leonard Arthur Culliford (1888-1960s) in London, England. The firm as active in the 1920s

Worked in UK Works

Rectory in Marchweil, Denbighshire; Grey Gates at Harpenden Common, Hertfordshire; and White House in Harpenden, Hertfordshire.