

Webb, George William 1853 - 1936

George William Webb was born in Reading Berkshire England in July 1853 and was articled to James Swallow Dodd (1831-1907) in Reading, Berkshire from 1865 to 1873. During these years he also attended the Reading Branch of the Government School of Art. In 1873 he went to Edward William Godwin as an improver. Webb commenced practice as an architect in 1875 in partnership with (?) Pinney in Axminster. The partnership was dissolved after two years. He subsequently formed a new partnership with Cyril B. Tubbs (1859-1927) in Reading. This lasted for five years. From 1886 Webb practised alone until 1908 when he went into partnership with Basil Hope Sutton (1883-1958). The partnership was dissolved in 1914.

Webb was elected an Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (ARIBA) in 1879 and a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects (FRIBA) in 1890. In 1874 he was awarded a Bronze Medal for Drawing at the International Exhibition in London 1874. His home address was given as Berkeley Cottage, 119 Castle Hill, Reading, Berkshire in 1879 and 1936. He had offices at 1 Blagrove Street, Reading, Berkshire in 1883; 14 Friar Street, Reading, Berkshire in 1890; and Market Place Chambers in 1898 and 1926. He died in Reading, Berkshire on 1 July 1936.
