

Sutton & Gregory 1904 - 1914

Sutton & Gregory was an architectural partnership formed in Nottingham, England by Ernest Richard Eckett Sutton (1860-1946) and Frederick William Charles Gregory in 1904. The partnership was dissolved in 1914

Worked in

UK

Works

Library, Mansfield, Nottinghamshire (1904-05); Warehouse, 1 Hollowstone, Nottingham (1908); Seacroft Hydro Hotel, Skegness, Yorkshire (1908); Congregational Church, Abington Avenue, Northampton (1910); St Helen's Church, Grindleford, Derbyshire (1910); Baptist Church, Mansfield Road, Nottingham (1912-13); and 5 Pelham Street, Nottingham (1913)