

Plumbe (Rowland) & Partners 1913 - 1933

Rowland Plumbe & Partners was an architectural partnership formed in London, England in 1913 by Rowland Plumbe (1838-1919), John Lionel Fleming-Williams (1879-1919) and John Charles Stephen Mummery (1862-1949). The practice was continued by Mummery following the death of Plumbe and Fleming-Williams in 1919, and eventually closed in 1933.

Worked in

UK

Works

Edith Cavell Home, London Hospital, designed by Rowland Plumbe & Partners (1918)

Links

- Wikipedia https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rowland_Plumbe