Monro, William Ernest 1867 - 1945

William Ernest Monro was born in England on 21 July 1867 and was articled to Arthur Richard George Fenning (1855-1937). He was then an improver with the London-based architect William Howard Seth-Smith (1855-1937) and remained with him as an assistant until 1905, when he was made a partner in the practice which became Seth-Smith & Monro. The practice became Seth-Smith, Monro & Matthew in 1934 when Alexander Edward Matthew (1903-1972) was made a partner in the firm.

Monro was elected a Licentiate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (LRIBA) in 1910, and a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects (FRIBA) in 1925. He was also a Fellow of the Society of Architects (FSArc). His address was given as 10 Abbeville Road, Finsbury, London in 1905; 46 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London in 1920 and 1939 (business). He died on 16 January 1945. His death was registered in Marylebone, London
