

Gee, Ernest 1888 - 1973

Ernest Gee was born in Liverpool, Lancashire, England on 25 November 1888. He enrolled at the School of Architecture, Liverpool University in Liverpool in 1908 and graduated with a Cert. Arch. in 1910. He was also awarded the Holt Travelling Scholarship and Measured Drawing Prize. He subsequently qualified as an architect and was elected an Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (ARIBA) in 1916 and a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects (FRIBA) in 1926. He practised as an architect in Liverpool and in c.1926 formed a partnership with Edgar Quiggin (1880-1950) as Quiggin & Gee. The title of the firm was retained for many years after Quiggin's death. Quiggin & Gee became David Parry Quiggin & Gee Associates in 1981.

In addition to his work as an architect, Gee also designed furniture. A photograph of a pedestal desk in Australian walnut with leather top, designed him and manufactured by Frederick Tibbenham Ltd. is illustrated in 'Decorative Art' 1939 (p.105).

Gee was Hon. Sec. of the Liverpool Architectural Society and was awarded the Society's Measured Drawing Prize. His was given as Harrington Chambers, 24 North John Street, Liverpool in 1919 and 1930; and North House, 17 North John Street, Liverpool in 1939. Gee died in Anglesey, Wales in March 1973.
