

Moulds & Porritt 1900 - 1907

Moulds & Porritt was an architectural partnership formed in London, England in 1900 by brothers James Diggle Mould (1857-1935) and Samuel Joseph Mould (1869-1923) and Austin Porritt (1875-1939). They had offices in London and in Bury, Lancashire. The partnership was dissolved in 1907.

Worked in

UK

Links

- Architects of Greater Manchester 1800-1940

<https://manchestervictorianarchitects.org.uk/partnerships/moulds-and-porrit>

- Historic England - Former Union Bank of Manchester, 5 South Parade

<https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/the-list/list-entry/1405181>