

Robertson, Howard Morley 1888 - 1963

Howard Morley Robertson [also known as Sir Howard Robertson] was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, USA, on 16 August 1888 and studied architecture at the Architectural Association in London (1905-07) and at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Paris (1908-12). In 1913 he received a French Government Architectural Diploma. After serving in France during World War One (1915-19) he returned to England and in 1919 formed the architectural partnership Easton & Robertson with John Murray Easton (1889-1975). In c.1931 they formed a partnership with Edwin Stanley Hall (1881-1940).

Robertson was one of the contributors to the design of the United Nations Headquarters in New York City (1949). He was elected a Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects (FRIBA) in 1925. He was awarded the RIBA Gold Medal in 1949 and served as President of the Royal Institute of British Architects in 1952-53. In 1954 he was knighted for his services to architecture.

He was the author of several books and articles on aspects of architecture. He was married to Doris Howard Robertson formerly Doris Adeney Lewis (1898-1981) who was, herself, an architect and an Associate of the Royal Institute of British Architects (ARIBA). Howard Morley Robertson died in London on 5 May 1963.
