

Brown, Derek W.

Derek W. Brown practised as an architect in Scunthorpe. Lincolnshire, England in the 1950s and 1960s. In the late 1950s he formed a partnership, Brown & Buttrick with Walter Hammond Buttrick (1882–1961). The practice designed the Co-operative Pharmacy in Scunthorpe. The pharmacy opened in 1963, two years after Buttrick's death. Following the death of Buttrick, Brown retained the original title of the practice for some years.

Worked in

UK

Links

- Lynn Pearson. Derek W. Brown 1963. Twentieth Century Society
<https://c20society.org.uk/building-of-the-month/co-operative-pharmacy-scunthorpe-lincolnshire>
- The National Archives
<https://discovery.nationalarchives.gov.uk/details/c/F283427>
- Scunny History <https://scunnyhistory.wordpress.com/2020/02/19/co-operative-mural/>